

Furnace Fixtures Machined to Your Specifications

Custom Manufacturer of Furnace Parts and Work Holders for Industrial Furnaces

As an experienced manufacturer of all types of custom graphite parts including furnace components and fixtures, Graphel Carbon Products can provide custom work holding solutions for any manufacturing challenge. We can fabricate furnace fixtures, baskets, trays, grids and shrouds for a variety of applications.

Designs can be fabricated to customer specifications or we can offer design assistance based on our extensive experience in graphite applications. By working with our customers, we have been able to solve many fixturing challenges. All fixturing is manufactured using our best practices and strict attention to detail.
